

FACE
Ron Lynch Chalice 12-26-87

Woke up this morning
Your face was beside me
All of My worries
Left so far behind me

You've awakened my heart
You've dropped into my dreams
You've brought me the wisdom of eighty the passion of Seventeen

I don't eat any more
I've no need for sleep
I want you forever
To share my castle keep

With a seven year old's wonder
I look forward to each day
I am excited, exhilarated
By each word that you say

You touch me, you sense me
Overwhelm me with your care
A lifetime together
Is the best thing we can share.
