

HEART INFILTRATOR
Ron Lynch Chalice (23 April 1986)

Gonna treat you like you've never been treated before
Gonna take you
To a place you've never been before
Gonna show you everything you've dreamed and so much more

CHORUS 1:

'Cause I, I'm telling you from the start
'Cause I, I want you to know even when we're apart
'Cause I, I'm telling you right from the start
That I, I'm gonna win your heart

CHORUS 2:

I'm a heart infiltrator
Even though it's not planned that way
I'm a heart infiltrator
What else can I say?
I'm a heart infiltrator
and I know there will always be another day

Gonna kiss you
Like you've never been kissed before
Gonna hold you
Like you've never been held before
Gonna touch you
Where you've never been touched before

CHORUS 1

Gonna take you on a voyage where you've never been Gonna show you
a million colors that you've never seen Gonna love you in a way that's gonna make you scream

CHORUS 2 (until fade)
